"As Santa reminds us, the holiday season can remain festive and fun by taking simple precautions to prevent home fires," said Kentucky State Fire Marshal Mike Haney. "It's easy to implement basic safety tips in your home, such as using flameless candles, watering your tree stand daily, and turning off your tree lights before leaving home."

The Division of Fire Prevention is an agency of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction (HBC) within the Public Protection Cabinet. Fire prevention and safety information tips are available by visiting the HBC website at <http://dhbc.ky.gov/sfm/Pages/Safety.aspx>.
